Oakwood 2030 Project recognized for prudent plans

OAKWOOD - The City of Oakwood gets top honors for its Oakwood 2030 Project.

Oakwood City Manager Stan Brown said the Georgia Planning Association awarded them the Outstanding Planning Document for 2009.

"The plan that we put together had a very detailed set of implementable steps which not only gave a great picture of what we're trying to accomplish as a community, but gave a good way ahead for making it happen," he said.

Brown said the award was presented to the city on Oct. 2.

Oakwood 2030 Project focuses on the current downtown and a new commercial center alongside I-985.

"I think for us it's recognition of the hard work that our staff and consultants did on this project," said Brown.

He said there were 29 other nominees in the running for the award.
